
PROF LEE YUNG SENG, SINGAPORE

KHOO TECK PUAT-NATIONAL UNIVERSITY CHILDREN'S MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
NATIONAL UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Professor Lee is a Senior Consultant Paediatrician of the paediatric endocrinology and Diabetes Service at the Khoo Teck Puat- National University Children's Medical Institute, National University Hospital, and also a tenured academic staff of the Yong Long Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore. He is the Group Director of Paediatrics, National University Health System; Head, Khoo Teck Puat-National University Children's Medical Institute, National University Hospital; Head of Department, Department of Paediatrics, Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore.

He is appointed the Dean's Chair, Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore in recognition of outstanding and impactful scholarly accomplishments.

He is the president elect of the Asia Pacific Paediatric Endocrine Society (APPES) and also the president elect of the College of Paediatrics and Child Health, Academy of Medicine, Singapore.

