

Bio

Dr. Vinh Tuan NGUYEN is President of Ho Chi Minh City Urology and Nephrology Association (HUNA). Graduated from HCMC University of Medicine and Pharmacy in 1987, Dr. Vinh has been working in the field of Surgical Urology for more than 30 years. He earned his PhD of Urology degree in 2001. He then went on to become Assistant Professor of Urology at the age of 50.

Dr. Vinh has been also known as a keen researcher, he has done over 50 research studies, with the most notable “Efficiency of ESWL towards lower calyceal stones” (presented at the 19th world Congress on Endourology and shockwave and Basic Research Symposium and Exhibition). He also published two popular books titled “Clinical Urology” (Publisher of Medicine, 2003) and “Bladder Tumour: Diagnosis to Treatment” (Publisher of Medicine, 2009). Besides he has nearly 100 articles in Journal of Medicine in Ho Chi Minh city.

Dr. Vinh is not only known as a hard-working and skillful surgeon, but he is also recognised as dedicated teacher. He is currently the Senior lecturer at Vietnam National University, School of Medicine and as a guest lecturer of other medical schools.

He is the Chief of Urology B Department, Binh Dan hospital.